CIVIC SYMPHONY OF GREEN BAY ANNOUNCES 2022-2023 SEASON

GREEN BAY, Wis. – The Civic Symphony of Green Bay (CSGB) and music director Seong Kyung-Graham announce programming for its upcoming 28th anniversary season. CSGB has a full season planned with four concerts: “Classical to Contemporary” on October 8, 2022, “Gridiron Gala with the Symphony” on November 19, 2022, “Film Favorites” on February 17, 2023, and “Coming to America” on April 16, 2023. Discounted season ticket packages are now on sale, with single ticket sales beginning at 10:00 am on August 22. For more information, visit <http://www.gbcivic.org/events/>.

Concert #1: Classical to Contemporary

Saturday, October 8, 2022 at 7:00 pm
St. Norbert College, 315 Third Street, De Pere
Abbot Pennings Hall of Fine Arts – Byron L. Walter Theatre

CSGB’s opening night concert will take listeners on a journey from classical orchestral works to contemporary music from a living composer. The Griffon String Quartet will make a special appearance first performing a traditional Haydn string quartet, and then later joining alongside CSGB on a newer work featuring soaring lyrical melodies and exciting jazz rhythms.

- Habanera by Emmanuel Chabrier
- L’Arlésienne Suite No. 1 by Georges Bizet
- String Quartet Op. 76, No. 2 by Joseph Haydn
- “Nemeth” String Quartet Concerto by Utar Artun

Concert #2: Gridiron Gala with the Symphony

Saturday, November 19, 2022 at 7:00 pm
Lambeau Field Atrium, 1265 Lombardi Avenue, Green Bay

Join CSGB for this special gala event in the Lambeau Field Atrium for an evening of dancing while the symphony plays dance music. Waltz, swing, blues, polka, rumba, and tango the night away! Before the concert, there are optional dance lessons by Green Bay Ballroom instructors, a stadium tour, and dinner in the balcony overlooking the atrium.

- Danzón No. 2 by Arturo Márquez
- Jump Swing Fever arranged by John Wasson
- Habanera & Seguidilla from “Carmen” by Georges Bizet
- Moondust (American Sketches No. 6) arranged by Mike Lewis
- Hoe-Down from “Rodeo” by Aaron Copland
- Waltz of the Flowers from “The Nutcracker” by Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky
- Blue Tango by Leroy Anderson
- Various waltzes and polkas by Johann Strauss II

Concert #3: Film Favorites (Family Concert)

Friday, February 17, 2023 at 7:00 pm

St. Norbert College, 315 Third Street, De Pere

Abbot Pennings Hall of Fine Arts – Byron L. Walter Theatre

Whether concertgoers are completely new to the orchestra world or symphony connoisseurs, there's a lot to enjoy in the annual family concert featuring film favorites. Join CSGB to experience music from some popular movies, including:

- Overture to “West Side Story” by Leonard Bernstein
- The Godfather: A Symphonic Portrait by Nino Rota
- Star Wars Medley by John Williams
- Selections from E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial by John Williams
- Mission: Impossible Theme by Lalo Schifrin
- Band of Brothers Suite by Michael Kamen
- Harry Potter & The Sorcerer’s Stone Suite by John Williams
- Music from “Frozen” by Kristen Anderson-Lopez and Robert Lopez

Concert #4: Coming to America

Sunday, April 16, 2023 at 3:00 pm

St. Norbert College, 315 Third Street, De Pere

Abbot Pennings Hall of Fine Arts – Byron L. Walter Theatre

CSGB’s season finale consists of an afternoon honoring America! Victor Herbert’s American Fantasia combines a variety of patriotic favorites everyone is sure to recognize, including a rousing rendition of our national anthem. Peter Boyer’s Ellis Island celebrates the historic American immigrant experience and the American dream. Innovative in its format, the work brings elements of the theater and multimedia into the concert hall, with historical images from the Ellis Island archives and spoken texts from the Ellis Island Oral History Project.

- American Fantasia by Victor Herbert
- Ellis Island: The Dream of America by Peter Boyer

CSGB is committed to its mission of providing accessible symphonic music through interactive and innovative experiences. Choose between in-person or virtual tickets for the October, February, and April performances at St. Norbert College.

Generous support for the 2022-2023 CSGB season is provided by The George Kress Foundation, The Schneider Foundation, The New Dermatology Group, and The Kimberly-Clark Foundation.
