THE DUDLEY BIRDER CHORALE OF ST. NORBERT COLLEGE AND THE CIVIC SYMPHONY OF GREEN BAY
PRESENT MOVIE MUSIC CONCERT

DE PERE, Wis. – The Dudley Birder Chorale of St. Norbert College and the Civic Symphony of Green Bay will present a joint concert featuring music from movies.

The concert, entitled “Choral Chills & Symphonic Scares,” will be held in the Walter Theatre at St. Norbert College on Saturday, October 28, 2023 at 7:00 pm. The chorale conducted by Kent Paulsen will perform in the first half, followed by the orchestra conducted by Seong-Kyung Graham in the second half. The concert will conclude with the two ensembles joining forces for a few combined pieces.

The audience will hear recognizable original music from Harry Potter, Pirates of the Caribbean, Doctor Who, Phantom of the Opera, Les Choristes (The Chorus), Saving Private Ryan, Fantasia, and Star Wars, as well as other well-known tunes frequently used in numerous movies. There will be a costume contest before the concert and during intermission, with the winners and prizes announced in the second half. Frank Hermans, of Let Me Be Frank Productions, will serve as the evening’s host and lead the audience in a singalong of the Ghostbusters theme.

Tickets are now on sale with pricing for adults ($25), seniors ($20), and students ($15). There is also a livestream ticket ($25) option available for those unable to attend in-person. Total prices as shown, no additional fees. Free parking available in the visitor lots on campus. For more information, visit snc.edu/tickets.

Since 1974, the Dudley Birder Chorale of St. Norbert College has set the standard for choral excellence in its performance of great masterworks, holiday favorites, and toe-tapping popular favorites. With 150 mixed voices from more than 30 communities in northeast Wisconsin, the chorale builds upon a long and distinguished tradition of choral music at St. Norbert College. The mission of the Chorale is to “bring together a community to rehearse and perform the highest quality choral music for the enrichment of all.” More information at: birderchorale.com

Founded in 1995, the Civic Symphony of Green Bay is a community of musicians committed to sustaining the wonder and beauty of symphonic music through live performances and artistic collaborations. Volunteer musicians of all ages play in the Civic Symphony of Green Bay. They are professional musicians and amateurs from all walks of life, drawn together by the love of great symphonic music and the desire to share it with others. Seong-Kyung Graham has been the conductor and artistic director of the orchestra since 2005. Generous support for the orchestra’s 2023-24 season is provided by the The George Kress Foundation, The Schneider Foundation, Enstrom Helicopter Corporation, Heid Music & the Heid Music Family Charitable Fund, The NEW Dermatology Group, Nicolet National Bank, and Pilotsmith. The Civic Symphony of Green Bay’s season is supported in part by a grant from the Wisconsin Arts Board with funds from the State of Wisconsin and the National Endowment for the Arts.
