NEW LOCATION FOR APRIL 21 CONCERT BY THE CIVIC SYMPHONY OF GREEN BAY

GREEN BAY, Wis. – The Civic Symphony of Green Bay announces a new location for its season finale performance the afternoon of Sunday, April 21, 2024. The concert will be held in the Ralph Holter Auditorium at Green Bay West High School, 966 Shawano Avenue, Green Bay. Doors open at 2:30 p.m., and the concert begins at 3:00.

Reserved seating for the concert is available through the St. Norbert College box office until Friday, April 19. General admission will be available at the Ralph Holter Auditorium on Sunday, April 21. Ticket prices for either purchasing method are adult ($25), senior ($20), and student ($15) – total prices as shown, no additional fees.

The orchestra recommends purchasing tickets in advance to select your preferred seats. Reserved seating will be in the center sections (B-D), and general admission seating will be in the outer sections (A and E). Free parking available in the lots at the high school. Patrons should enter the building at door #9 (southeast corner of the building facing Shawano Ave). For more information, visit gbcivic.org/events.

Current ticket holders have been reticketed due to the change in venue. Please check your email for information about your new seats, or contact the St. Norbert College box office at 920-403-3950 or visit snc.edu/tickets if you have questions. The box office is open Monday-Friday from noon to 4:00 p.m.

This “Greatest Hits” concert closes the Civic Symphony of Green Bay’s 29th season. The exciting afternoon program opens with Olympic Fanfare & Theme by John Williams. Concertgoers will hear the instantly recognizable Overture to the Marriage of Figaro, followed by a selection of movements from well-known symphonies.

- Olympic Fanfare & Theme by John Williams (arranged for brass ensemble)
- Overture to The Marriage of Figaro by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart
- Movement 1 from Symphony No. 5 by Ludwig van Beethoven
- Movement 2 from Symphony No. 9 by Antonín Dvořák
- Movement 3 from Symphony No. 4 by Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky
- Movement 4 from Symphony No. 1 by Gustav Mahler

The performance will be hosted by Warren Gerds. Warren has written 12 books held by the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C. They range from biographical (“Real, Honest Sailing with a Great Lakes Captain”) to fictional (“The Lost Legend of Taylor Rapids”) to career-spanning (“Golden Tales of a Newsmen”).

Generous support for the Civic Symphony of Green Bay’s 2023-24 season is provided by the The George Kress Foundation, The Schneider Foundation, Enstrom Helicopter Corporation, Heid Music & the Heid Music Family Charitable Fund, The NEW Dermatology Group, Nicolet National Bank, and Pilotsmith. The Civic Symphony of Green Bay’s season is supported in part by a grant from the Wisconsin Arts Board with funds from the State of Wisconsin and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Founded in 1995, the Civic Symphony of Green Bay is a community of musicians committed to sustaining the wonder and beauty of symphonic music through live performances and artistic collaborations. Volunteer musicians of all ages play in the Civic Symphony of Green Bay. They are professional musicians and amateurs from all walks of life, drawn together by the love of great symphonic music and the desire to share it with others. Seong-Kyung Graham has been the conductor and artistic director of the orchestra since 2005.
